In addition to the above crimes which require disqualification, MAHA policy states that a person may be disqualified and prohibited from serving as an employee, independent contractor, or volunteer of MAHA and/or its associated organizations if:

1. The person has been convicted (including crimes the record of which has been expunged and pleas of "no contest") of any crime of violence against minors, or any crime which indicates the person may pose a risk to the safety and well-being of players under his/her direction or stewardship, including but not limited to all felonies not described above, domestic assault, indecent exposure, and multiple convictions for operating motor vehicles or watercraft while under the influence of alcohol or controlled substances; or
2. It is determined that he/she has been adjudged liable for civil penalties or damages involving sexual or physical abuse of children, is subject to any court order involving sexual abuse or physical abuse of a minor, including, but not limited to, domestic order for protection, has had his/her parental rights terminated for reasons involving sexual or physical abuse of children; or
3. MAHA or any of its affiliates comes into possession of verified information that he/she has a history with another organization (as a volunteer, employee or otherwise) of complaints of physical or sexual abuse of minors, resigned, been terminated or been asked to resign from a position, whether paid or unpaid, due to complaint(s) of sexual or physical abuse of minors.

NOTICE

As the subject of a Child Protection Act background check, your rights include:

- § to be informed that MAHA or organizations associated with MAHA will request this check for becoming or continuing as an employee or volunteer, and to determine whether you have been convicted of any of the above specified crimes;
- § to be informed of the BCA's response and obtain a copy of the report from MAHA or organizations associated with MAHA;
- § to obtain from the BCA any record that forms the basis for the report;
- § to challenge the accuracy and completeness of any information contained in the report;
- § to be informed whether MAHA or organizations associated with MAHA have denied your application because of the BCA's response and not to be required directly to pay the cost of the background check.

Background information will be obtained pursuant to this consent form which may be subject to the Fair Credit Reporting Act. You have given us authorization to obtain that information and to use it in determining your participation in Minnesota Hockey activities. A summary of your rights pertaining to this consent under the FCRA will be provided on request or may be obtained at: <http://www.ftc.gov/os/statutes/2summary.htm>.
